About our Healthy Food

We search out the finest, freshest ingredients for our recipes. We buy only high quality lean meat and trim all the fat before cooking. You will never find any lard in our food, not even in our beans or our tortillas. We use only small amounts of heart-healthy canola oil when needed. Our produce is the freshest and is prepared regularly throughout the day. Sonoma Taco Shop offers you not only healthier and tastier food, but also a nutritional balance for the times you don't eat as you should. As a service to you, we offer a healthy menu to help you enjoy your diet not only at home, but when you want to eat out.

HOLA! WELCOME TO SONOMA TACO SHOP

We'd like to explain why you've made a wise decision in patronizing Sonoma Taco Shop.

First of all, what is Mexican food? It's a lot like its people, a cheerful blend of Indian and Spanish. The Spanish arrived in 1519 and brought with them their favorite dishes from Spain, which they blended with the Mexican recipes, which were solidly grounded in Aztec and Mayan traditions. In this respect Sonoma Taco Shop is a lot like Mexico except this time you the customer are the one who is doing the influencing.

We are extremely aware that people today care deeply about the food they eat. Modern man has learned a lot about diet and nutrition in recent years. Therefore, we at Sonoma Taco Shop are applying this wealth of information in our recipes and cooking techniques. So you, the customer, are served the healthiest food possible without sacrificing the flavor...that we all desire.

We hope you enjoy the food at Sonoma Taco Shop as much as we enjoy serving you. Remember... the only taste buds that count, are your own!
